Date: 2026-10-08

Note: Generated with Haiku 5.5, then independently re-verified question by question by separate Sonnet agents using fresh searches (two-source rule; unconfirmed claims removed, ambiguous or leaking questions dropped). 29 questions: one slot was dropped for weak sourcing. Several primary sites were unreachable, so residual risk is listed below. Not reviewed by a human.

Facts resting on a single or secondary source (residual risk):

- Passage 1: Graded punishments, heavier for forced transgender identity / begging / servitude, higher where victim is a child (one source only)
- Passage 1: Under the 2019 Act a person applied to the DM for a certificate that conferred the right to self-perceived identity (one source only)
- Passage 1: Opposition (incl. Congress) called it unconstitutional regression; alleged exclusion of gay/lesbian persons (one source only)
- Passage 4: Seventh edition of Women AutHer Awards; winners announced April 2026; Kabir Bedi chief guest; JK Paper and Times of India joint venture; PrintWeek report dated 8 April 2026 (one source only)
- Passage 4: Pawar holds an MA from University of Bombay and worked many years in labour welfare department of Govt of Maharashtra (one source only)
- Passage 4: Reviewers noted candour incl. familial/marital conflict that upset some admirers; jury praised honest writing on identity, equality, justice (one source only)
- Passage 5: Swarajya described SFC as critical component of NCA; launch followed similar trial in July 2025 (one source only)
- P3 new count question: Kuno sanctuary 1981 and Chambal tributary rely mainly on Wikipedia-level sources.
- P4 new count question: Translation Prize year (1989) supported by Wikipedia/dataful.in/Akademi record cited by Wikipedia; primary page not opened.

Passage 1: Transgender Rights Amendment Bill

Q1. Answer: (C) 2014

Explanation: The NALSA judgment, which upheld self-perceived gender identity and recognised a third gender, was delivered in 2014. The 2019 Act was enacted to build on it. The passage does not give the year.

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Transgender_Persons_\(Protection_of_Rights\)_Act,_2019_Act,_2019)

Q2. Answer: (D) Article 111

Explanation: Article 111 deals with assent to Bills: the President must either give assent or withhold it, and a non-Money Bill may be returned once for reconsideration. Article 110 defines Money Bills.

Source: <https://www.constitutionofindia.net/articles/article-111-assent-to-bills>

Q3. Answer: (C) I-D, II-B, III-C, IV-A

Explanation: Article 21 protects life and personal liberty; Article 32 lets a person move the Supreme Court for enforcement of Part III rights; Article 111 covers assent to Bills; Article 368 sets the amendment procedure.

<https://www.constitutionofindia.net/articles/article-368-power-of-parliament-to-amend-the-constitution/>

Q4. Answer: (A) I only

Explanation: Statement I is true: the Act came into force on 10 January 2020 by notification S.O. 135(E). Statement II is false: Parliament passed the Act in 2019, and it received presidential assent on 5 December 2019.

Source: <https://www.indiacode.nic.in/bitstream/123456789/13091/1/A2019-40.pdf>

Q5. Answer: (B) Only two

Explanation: Statements 1 and 2 are correct (Article 368(2) and the Article 111 proviso). Statement 3 is wrong because Article 32 is a Supreme Court power, while High Courts have writ power under Article 226. Statement 4 is wrong because Article 368(2) says the President shall give assent. Two statements are incorrect.

Q6. Answer: (D) (A) is false but (R) is true

Explanation: The assertion is false: the Rajya Sabha can neither reject nor amend a Money Bill, it can only make recommendations, which the Lok Sabha may accept or reject. The reason is true: Article 109 sets a 14-day limit, after which the Bill is deemed passed in the form the Lok Sabha sent it.

Passage 2: Supreme Court warns against AI-generated fake judgments

Q7. Answer: (D) Article 129

Explanation: Article 129 declares the Supreme Court a Court of Record with power to punish for contempt of itself. The passage does not mention the Article. Article 124 sets the qualifications for Supreme Court judges, as the Article 76 commentary notes, and is not the court-of-record provision.

Source: <https://www.constitutionofindia.net/articles/article-129-supreme-court-to-be-a-court-of-record/>

Q8. Answer: (C) Supreme Court judge

Explanation: Article 76 ties eligibility for the office of Attorney General to the qualifications for appointment as a Supreme Court judge, which are set out in Article 124. The passage names the Attorney General but does not state the eligibility rule.

Source: <https://www.constitutionofindia.net/articles/article-76-attorney-general-for-india/>

Q9. Answer: (A) Both (A) and (R) are true and (R) is the correct explanation of (A)

Explanation: Both statements are true. Article 226 allows writs for 'any other purpose', which is the textual basis for the High Court's wider writ jurisdiction compared with Article 32, so the reason explains the assertion.

Source: <https://www.constitutionofindia.net/articles/article-226/>

Q10. Answer: (B) I-D, II-A, III-B, IV-C

Explanation: Article 32 gives the Supreme Court power to issue writs for enforcement of Part III rights (I-D). Article 76 provides for the Attorney General (II-A). Article 129 makes the Supreme Court a court of record (III-B). Article 215 makes each High Court a court of record (IV-C). Sources: Article 32 bare act, Article 76, Article 129 and Article 215 pages.

<https://www.constitutionofindia.net/articles/article-129-supreme-court-to-be-a-court-of-record/>

Q11. Answer: (A) I only

Explanation: Statement I is true: section 4 of the Advocates Act, 1961 provides for the Bar Council of India, as the Act's table of contents shows. Statement II is false: the Supreme Court's court-of-record status is in Article 129, while Article 215 concerns the High Courts.

Source: <https://indiacode.nic.in/bitstream/123456789/1631/4/A1961-25.pdf>

Q12. Answer: (B) Only two

Explanation: Statements 1 and 2 are correct. Statement 3 is incorrect because the Attorney General is provided for under Article 76; Article 124 sets qualifications for Supreme Court judges. Statement 4 is incorrect because Article 226 also covers 'any other purpose'. Two statements are incorrect, so the answer is 'Only two'.

Passage 3: Botswana cheetahs reach Kuno

Q13. Answer: (B) 1952

Explanation: The cheetah was officially declared extinct in India in 1952. The passage refers to the species only as having been absent for decades, so the year must come from outside the passage.

Source: <https://news.yahoo.com/animal-declared-extinct-india-1952-230654142.html>

Q14. Answer: (D) I-A, II-B, III-C, IV-D

Explanation: The Asiatic cheetah (A. j. venaticus) is found in Iran and is rated Critically Endangered by the IUCN. The cheetah species as a whole is rated Vulnerable, with an estimated 6,517 mature individuals in the 2021 assessment.

Q15. Answer: (B) Both (A) and (R) are true but (R) is NOT the correct explanation of (A)

Explanation: Both statements are true: batches came from Namibia, South Africa and Botswana. The Namibian origin of the first batch is not a reason for the reliance on several countries, so R is true but does not explain A.

<https://www.outlooktraveller.com/News/india-adds-nine-more-botswana-cheetahs-to-kuno-population-reaches-48>

Q16. Answer: (A) I only

Explanation: Statement I is true (Asiatic cheetah, Iran, Critically Endangered). Statement II is false: the cheetah species is rated Vulnerable on the IUCN Red List.

Source: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Cheetah>

Q17. Answer: (C) Only three

Explanation: Statements 1, 2 and 3 are correct. Statement 4 is incorrect: the Kuno River is a tributary of the Chambal, not the Narmada. Three statements are correct, so the answer is Only three.

Passage 4: Women Author Awards 2026 and Urmila Pawar

Q18. Answer: (C) 14 October 1956

Explanation: Ambedkar converted to Buddhism at Deekshabhoomi in Nagpur on 14 October 1956; the annual observance is Dhammachakra Pravartan Din. The other options are distractors and are not supported by the source.

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Dhammachakra_Pravartan_Din

Q19. Answer: (D) 1954

Explanation: The Akademi's official website states it was formally inaugurated on 12 March 1954. It was registered as a society under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 on 7 January 1956, which is why 1956 is a distractor.

Q20. Answer: (B) Both (A) and (R) are true but (R) is NOT the correct explanation of (A)

Explanation: Both statements are true, but the Devanagari script does not explain why the book is a translation; the translation relationship rests on Marathi being the original language, not its script. Hence R is true but not the explanation of A.

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Marathi_language

Q21. Answer: (A) I-C, II-D, III-B, IV-A

Explanation: Rushdie won the Booker Prize in 1981 for Midnight's Children; Arundhati Roy won in 1997 for The God of Small Things; Jhabvala won in 1975 for Heat and Dust; William Golding won in 1980 for Rites of Passage.

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_winners_and_nominated_authors_of_the_Booker_Prize

Q22. Answer: (A) I only

Explanation: Statement I is true. Statement II is false: Marathi is written in Devanagari, the official writing system; Modi was a historical script used for administration and business records.

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Marathi_language

Q23. Answer: (D) All four

Explanation: All four are correct. The Jnanpith was instituted in 1961 and first awarded in 1965 to G. Sankara Kurup (Odakkuzhal). The Sahitya Akademi Translation Prize began in 1989. Khandekar won the 1974 Jnanpith for Yayati, the first for a Marathi writer. Nemade (Kosala, 1963) was chosen for the 50th Jnanpith, for 2014.

Passage 5: India tests Agni missiles in May 2026

Q24. Answer: (B) 2015

Explanation: The island, formerly Wheeler Island, was renamed on 4 September 2015 to honour former President APJ Abdul Kalam.

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Abdul_Kalam_Island

Q25. Answer: (D) 4 January 2003

Explanation: The Cabinet Committee on Security approved the creation of the Strategic Forces Command, with a Commander-in-Chief, on 4 January 2003.

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Strategic_Forces_Command

Q26. Answer: (D) I-A, II-D, III-B, IV-C

Explanation: The Executive Council is chaired by the National Security Adviser and the Political Council by the Prime Minister. The island lies in Bhadrak district, and Agni-I is a single-stage, solid-fuel missile.

Q28. Answer: (A) Only one

Explanation: Only statement 2 is incorrect: the Executive Council is chaired by the National Security Adviser. Statements 1, 3 and 4 are correct.

Source: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nuclear_Command_Authority_\(India\))

Q29. Answer: (C) (A) is true but (R) is false

Explanation: The assertion is true: the IGMDP was approved on 1983 with Abdul Kalam as its driving figure. The reason is false: the programme covered five systems, Prithvi, Agni, Trishul, Akash and Nag, which include surface-to-air missiles (Trishul, Akash) and an anti-tank missile (Nag).
