Note: Generated with Haiku 5.5, then independently verified question by question by separate Sonnet agents using fresh searches (two-source rule; claims that could not be confirmed were removed or reworded; ambiguous, unchecked or overlapping questions were dropped). Several primary sources were unreachable, so residual risk is listed below. Not reviewed by a human.

Passage 1: Eight High Courts get new Chief Justices

Q1. Answer: (C) Article 217

Explanation: Article 217(1) provides that every High Court judge is appointed by the President by warrant under his hand and seal, after consultation with the CJI, the Governor of the State and, for judges other than the Chief Justice, the Chief Justice of that High Court.

<https://vajiramandravi.com/current-affairs/article-217-of-the-indian-constitution/>

Q2. Answer: (C) Article 222

Explanation: Article 222 allows the President, after consultation with the Chief Justice of India, to transfer a judge from one High Court to any other High Court. Article 224 deals with additional and acting judges.

<https://lawyersupdate.co.in/?p=2909>

Q3. Answer: (B) I-C, II-A, III-D, IV-B

Explanation: Article 129 makes the Supreme Court a court of record (C). Article 226 gives High Courts writ jurisdiction (A). Article 227 gives superintendence over subordinate courts and tribunals (D). Article 233 covers appointment and posting of district judges (B).

Q4. Answer: (B) Both (A) and (R) are true but (R) is NOT the correct explanation of (A)

Explanation: Both are true: Article 124(1) lets Parliament prescribe a larger number of judges by law, and Article 124(2) fixes tenure to age 65. The tenure age does not explain why Parliament can change the strength of the Court, so R is true but not the reason for A.

Source: <https://future.indiankanoon.org/doc/1995948> ; <https://forumias.com/blog/article-124-of-indian-constitution/>

Q5. Answer: (D) Neither I nor II

Explanation: Neither is correct. Article 224(1) limits additional judges' term to not more than two years. Article 223 empowers the President, not the Governor, to appoint a High Court judge to act as Chief Justice.

Q6. Answer: (C) I and III only

Explanation: Statements I and III are correct: Article 124(2) provides for presidential appointment, and Article 124(2A) leaves age determination to Parliament's law. Statement II is wrong because under Article 124(2) a judge resigns by writing to the President.

Q9. Answer: (A) I-B, II-A, III-C, IV-D

Explanation: The Accords were launched in 2020 (B) by eight original signatories (C). They set out ten principles (D) and are grounded in the 1967 Outer Space Treaty (A).

Q10. Answer: (D) (A) is false but (R) is true

Explanation: Assertion is false: the Accords are not a binding treaty and the UN Security Council does not enforce them. Reason is true: the Accords are non-binding and have no formal enforcement mechanism, unlike the Outer Space Treaty.

Q11. Answer: (B) Only two

Explanation: Statements 1 and 2 are correct. Statement 3 is false because Artemis II was a flyby without landing, and statement 4 is false because the launch was from Kennedy Space Center in Florida. Two statements are correct, so the answer is 'Only two'.

Q12. Answer: (B) I and III only

Explanation: Statements I and III are true. The treaty was signed on 4 April 1949 and Portugal was an original signatory. Statement II is false because the treaty entered into force on 24 August 1949.

Q13. Answer: (A) Both (A) and (R) are true and (R) is the correct explanation of (A)

Q28. Answer: (C) (A) is true but (R) is false

Explanation: The assertion is true: the Cabinet approved the ISM 1.0 package on 15 December 2021. The reason is false: the ISM is run under the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MeitY), not the Ministry of Finance.

Q30. Answer: (B) I and III only

Explanation: Statement I is correct: Article 265 requires legal authority for any tax. Statement II is wrong: executive circulars are not enough, and collection must rest on law. Statement III is correct: Article 74(1) binds the President to the Council of Ministers' advice. So 'I and III only' is the answer.
