

CLAT GK - Test 04 - Answer Key

Date: 2026-10-08

Note: Generated with Haiku 5.5, then independently verified question by question by separate Sonnet agents using fresh searches (two-source rule; claims that could not be confirmed were removed or reworded; ambiguous, unchecked or leaking questions were dropped). Several primary sources were unreachable, so residual risk is listed below. Not reviewed by a human.

Facts resting on a single or secondary source (residual risk):

- Passage 1: the Section 187 BNSS = 167 CrPC mapping and the Water Act year rest on commentary and Act listings, not a second independent publisher.
- Passage 2: the Charter for Democratic Diffusion of AI claim rests on a declaration-text reprint (Free Press Journal) plus Drishti IAS; Article 19/32 wording rests on exam-prep and iPleaders pages.
- Passage 3: the Spur Link route and length differ across reports (stated as such); Q5's Article 32 limb rests on standard law with only secondary sources.
- Passage 4: the constitutional-article questions rest on constitutionofindia.net, exam-prep sites and a few official pages, not the Constitution's own text; the '12 bills passed' figure is the government's (PRS-based reports say 11 of 12 introduced).
- Passage 5: the June 2027 election date rests on Wikipedia plus one news report; Trump's opening-day address is preview coverage only (worded 'scheduled'); Q4's Article 109 text came via an ICJ note.
- Static-GK explanations cite Wikipedia or exam-prep pages in places where a primary text was not reachable.

Passage 1: SC Rulings on Anticipatory Bail and NCR Air Pollution

Q1. Answer: (B) Section 482 BNSS

Explanation: Section 482 BNSS is the anticipatory bail provision and corresponds to Section 438 CrPC. Section 480 BNSS corresponds to Section 437 CrPC (bail in non-bailable offences), Section 483 BNSS to the special bail powers of the High Court and Court of Session (Section 439 CrPC), and Section 187 BNSS to remand (Section 167 CrPC).

Q2. Answer: (B) Article 142

Explanation: Article 142 empowers the Supreme Court to pass such decree or order as is necessary for doing complete justice, and such orders are enforceable throughout India. Article 143 is the advisory jurisdiction, Article 144 requires civil authorities to act in aid of the Supreme Court, and Article 129 declares the Court to be a court of record.

Q3. Answer: (C) (A) is true but (R) is false

Explanation: A is true: the Supreme Court in NHRC v State of Arunachal Pradesh (1996) held that Article 21 protects non-citizens. R is false: Article 21 says 'No person shall be deprived of his life or personal liberty except according to procedure established by law'. It uses 'person', not 'citizen'.

Q4. Answer: (C) I-D, II-A, III-B, IV-C

Explanation: Article 32 is the Supreme Court's writ jurisdiction for Fundamental Rights (D). Article 136 is special leave to appeal (A). Article 226 gives High Courts writ power for Fundamental Rights and any other purpose (B). Article 245 defines the territorial extent of laws (C).

Q5. Answer: (B) I and II only

Explanation: Statements I and II are correct (1974 and 1981). Statement III is incorrect: the Commission for Air Quality Management Act was enacted in 2021, so the correct combination is I and II only.

Q6. Answer: (D) All four

Explanation: All four statements are correct: the SC/ST (PoA) Act was passed in 1989; Section 18 bars the application of Section 438 CrPC in arrest cases under the Act; the Kiran judgment (2025 INSC 1067) was decided by a bench headed by CJI B.R. Gavai; and Article 17 abolishes untouchability. Hence 'All four'.

Q9. Answer: (C) (A) is true but (R) is false

Explanation: The assertion is true: Article 253 lets Parliament legislate for the whole or any part of India to implement treaties, agreements and international decisions. The reason is false: Article 253 sits in Part XI (Union-State relations), while Part IV contains the Directive Principles.

Q10. Answer: (A) I-B, II-D, III-A, IV-C

Explanation: Article 14 guarantees equality before the law (B); Article 19 guarantees six freedoms including speech and expression (D); Article 21 protects life and personal liberty (A); Article 32 provides the right to constitutional remedies (C).

Source: <https://www.constitutionofindia.net/articles/article-14-equality-before-law> ; <https://blog.ipleaders.in/article-19-indian-constitution/> ; https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Article_21_of_the_Constitution_of_India ; <https://www.pmfias.com/article-32/>

Q11. Answer: (C) Both I and II

Explanation: Both statements are true: Article 51 is a directive principle on promoting international peace and security, and the Constituent Assembly completed the Constitution on 26 November 1949.

Source: <https://www.constitutionofindia.net/articles/article-51-promotion-of-international-peace-and-security/> ; https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Constitution_of_India ; <https://www.drishtias.com/daily-updates/daily-news-analysis/70th-constitution-day>

Q12. Answer: (B) Only two

Explanation: Statements 1 and 4 are correct. Statement 2 is wrong because the Fundamental Duties were added by the 42nd Amendment (1976). Statement 3 is wrong because amendments are made by Parliament, with ratification by half the States only for certain provisions. Only two statements are correct.

Passage 3: UP Cabinet clears four expressway projects

Q13. Answer: (B) Article 213

Explanation: Article 213 lets the Governor promulgate ordinances during a recess of the State legislature when immediate action is necessary; such an ordinance lapses six weeks after the legislature reassembles unless approved. Article 200 concerns assent to bills, Article 201 bills reserved for the President, and Article 216 the constitution of High Courts.

Q14. Answer: (A) Concurrent List

Explanation: Entry 42 of List III, the Concurrent List, reads 'Acquisition and requisitioning of property', so both Parliament and State legislatures can legislate on it. It replaced the earlier separate Union and State entries, which were deleted.

Q15. Answer: (A) I-D, II-C, III-A, IV-B

Explanation: Article 163 provides for the Council of Ministers to aid and advise the Governor (D). Article 243K vests superintendence of panchayat elections in the State Election Commission (C). Article 280 provides for the Finance Commission (A). Article 165 provides for the Advocate General of the State (B).

Q16. Answer: (D) (A) is false but (R) is true

Explanation: The assertion is false: property ceased to be a fundamental right, and Article 300A makes it a constitutional right, so it is not directly enforceable under Article 32. The reason is true: Article 300A bars deprivation of property except by authority of law.

Source: <https://barandbench.com/news/litigation/right-to-property-still-a-constitutional-right-supreme-court-reiterates/> ;

Q17. Answer: (A) I only

Explanation: Statement I is correct: Article 174(1) provides that six months shall not intervene between the last sitting of a House in one session and its first sitting in the next. Statement II is wrong: Article 154 vests the State's executive power in the Governor, exercisable directly or through subordinate officers.

Q18. Answer: (A) I and III only

Explanation: Statements I and III are correct: Article 3 empowers Parliament to form a new State, and the bill needs the President's recommendation. Statement II is wrong: the State legislature is only given the opportunity to express its views, not a power to consent or veto.

Passage 4: Tribunals Reforms Bill, 2026

Q19. Answer: (B) Article 323B

Explanation: Article 323B, inserted by the 42nd Amendment in 1976, lists taxation first among the matters for which tribunals may be set up. Article 323A deals with service disputes of public servants, and Articles 124 and 368 deal with the Supreme Court and constitutional amendments respectively.

Q22. Answer: (C) (A) is true but (R) is false

Explanation: The assertion is true: the Lok Sabha passed the bill by voice vote on 10 August 2026. The reason is false: Article 109(1) bars a Money Bill from being introduced in the Rajya Sabha, so such a bill must begin in the Lok Sabha.

Passage 5: UN General Assembly's 81st Session

Q25. Answer: (C) 24 October 1945

Explanation: The Charter was opened for signature in San Francisco on 26 June 1945 and entered into force on 24 October 1945, under Article 110, after ratification by the five permanent members and a majority of the other signatories. 26 June 1945 is the opening-for-signature date and 15 October 1945 is the date Poland signed, so neither is the entry-into-force date.

Q26. Answer: (C) Nine years

Explanation: The ICJ has 15 judges, each elected to a nine-year term by the General Assembly and the Security Council, with one-third of the bench elected every three years.

Source: <https://icj-cij.org/node/6> ; <https://www.icj-cij.org/en/members> ; https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/2023_International_Court_of_Justice_judges_election

Q27. Answer: (B) I-A, II-B, III-C, IV-D

Explanation: Article 7 lists the six principal organs; Article 92 makes the ICJ the principal judicial organ; Article 97 makes the Secretary-General the chief administrative officer; Article 109 provides for a general conference to review the Charter.

Q28. Answer: (D) (A) is false but (R) is true

Explanation: The assertion is false: the General Assembly, not the Security Council, elects its President. The reason is true: Rule 30 of the Assembly's rules of procedure requires the election at least three months before the session opens.

Q29. Answer: (B) II only

Explanation: Statement I is false: under Article 23 a retiring non-permanent member is not eligible for immediate re-election. Statement II is true: election requires a two-thirds majority of members present and voting in the General Assembly. Only II is correct.

Q30. Answer: (C) I and II only

Explanation: Statements I and II are correct under Article 27: procedural decisions need nine votes, while non-procedural decisions also need the concurring votes of the permanent members. Statement III is false because the permanent members are named in the Charter and are not elected by the General Assembly.
